

If any changes are ever made to the no-call regulations I would prefer they result in fewer calls than we now receive. It should include any organization soliciting funds or information including political parties or candidates and charities. If I wanted to talk with any of them, I'd find them.